

Andrew Pegg - Midas Corporate Consulting Effective business property solutions

This week I am at a seminar on what's new in Corporate Real Estate... tough call eh!

Back at the ranch an

Ideal Referral

For us is a business leader within an organisation facing up to the challenges and opportunities presented by the present economic climate – they could be an FD, a CEO, a Facilities, Estates, HR or Operations Director. They will recognise that their property is out of alignment with current business needs and they want to do something about it.

Who do you know who:

May now have too much or too little commercial property for their business need ...

Who wants to acquire another business which has property?

Wants to reduce fixed business costs?

Is thinking about moving their business in the next 2 years?

We provide clients with an independent view what is possible for their business through their use of property which means that they can improve their business performance in ways not seen before.

So how do we do this?

- 1. We Listen
- 2. We Evaluate
- 3. We Deliver
